School of Science	Award	N/A	Faculty	Research Award	School	The purpose of this award is to recognize a full-time, tenured or tenure-track faculty member in the School of Science for outstanding accomplishment in research based on publications, external grant support and other evidence of scholarly activity. The candidate must be a full-time, tenured or tenure-track faculty member who has at least two years in residence in the IUPUI School of Science.	Annually.
School of Science	Award	N/A	Faculty	Service Award	School	The purpose of this award is to honor a full-time, tenure track faculty member for outstanding service to the department, School of Science, and IUPUI. The School of Science Promotion and Tenure Document identified three broad categories of service activities: 1. University Service; 2. Professional Service; 3. Public Service. Excluded from the service category are nonprofessional activities, such as Scouting, and memberships in civic, religious, or business organizations. The School Promotion and Tenure document discusses several levels of service performance: satisfactory, substantial, and distinguished. The recipient of the Outstanding Service Award must demonstrate distinguished service performance. Distinguished performance is supported by evidence that the nominee has had considerable impact at the Department, School, and University levels. Distinguished service to the Department alone is insufficient evidence for this level of performance.	Annually.
School of Science	Award	N/A	Faculty	Academic Advising Award	School	The purpose of this award is to honor a full-time faculty or staff member for outstanding academic advising within the Purdue University School of Science at Indianapolis. School of Science	Award	N/A	Faculty	Full-time Lecturer Service Award	School	The purpose of this award is to honor a full-time, non-tenure track lecturer for outstanding service to the department, School of Science, and IUPUI. The School of Science Promotion and Tenure Document identified three broad categories of service activities for tenure-track faculty, against which non-tenure track lecturers can be measured: 1. University Service; 2. Professional Service; 3. Public Service. Excluded from the service category are nonprofessional activities, such as Scouting, and memberships in civic, religious, or business organizations. The School Promotion and Tenure document for tenure-track faculty discusses several levels of service performance: satisfactory, substantial, and distinguished. The recipient of the Outstanding Service Award for Full-time (non tenure-track) Lecturers must demonstrate distinguished service performance. Distinguished performance is supported by evidence that the nominee has had considerable impact at the Department, School, and University levels. Distinguished service to the Department alone is insufficient evidence for this level of performance.	Annually.
School of Science	Award	N/A	Staff	Partners in Education Staff Award	School	The purpose of this award is to recognize one staff member whose performance is most notable among his or her peers and demonstrates exemplary service in support of the Department and the mission of the School of Science. School of Social Work	Award	$2,500 and a renewal amount of $1,000	Faculty	Funded Project Proposal Development Incentive	School of Social Work	A maximum cash award of $2,500 is possible for faculty who submit a new grant proposal. The cash amount awarded is subject to guidelines regarding the total amount of the grant and number of faculty involved in the proposal. The grant proposal must be submitted through the office of Sponsored Research Services. Under this same plan, a continuation or renewal of an existing project is eligible for a maximum cash award of $1,000. This award is also subject to the restrictions mentioned for the $2,500 award amount. Since July 2006, seven faculty have received $2,500 awards. Two faculty have received $1,000 awards.	These awards are made throughout the year pending proof of submission of the proposal to the agency by Sponsored Research Services. The proposal must be submitted to meet the agency's deadline for proposal submissions.
School of Social Work	Award	$5,000 per course	Faculty	Online Course Development	School of Social Work	The School of Social Work offers an incentive in the amount of $5,000 (maximum amount allowed per course) to each faculty member who develops an online course. This incentive is subject to the following criteria: 1) The policy applies to full-time, part-time, and retired faculty of IUSSW who are knowledgeable in the subject area. 2) The course should not currently exist online and its selection should be based on program needs as articulated by the respective Executive Program Director. 3) The request must be approved by the Executive Program Director. The incentive of $5,000 is for the development of a course equating to a minimum of 3 credit hours. The incentive is prorated for courses < 3 credit hours (1 credit hour = $1,667 incentive; 2 credit hours = $3,333 incentive).	In FY2007, to date $5,000 has been paid toward online incentives.
School of Social Work	Award	$5,000 per year per project	Faculty	Sharing of Indirect Costs with Principal Investigators (PI)	School of Social Work	The School of Social Work shares a portion of the indirect costs received on awarded grants with the PI on the grant. A maximum amount of $5,000 per year per project can be given. For funded grants that bring in full indirect costs, 20% of the School's share of indirect costs (cap of $5,000) is eligible to be shared with the PI. For funded grants bringing in less than the full indirect costs, 10% of the indirect costs can be shared (cap of $5,000). The PI's % is placed in their faculty account and may be used for: conference travel; books and supplies related to scholarship activities; pay for research assistants; equipment; and other items relating to scholarship activities with the approval of the Dean and Fiscal Officer.	The indirect costs are generally distributed to the PI on a quarterly basis. In FY2007, Social Work has six PI's receiving a share of the indirect costs.
