The Seventeenth Annual Joseph Taylor Symposium

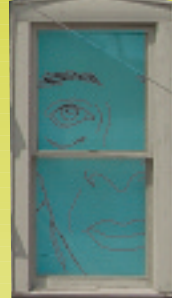

Presented by The IU School of Liberal Arts at IUPUI in association with the Department of Sociology and The Polis Center

THE CRISIS IN URBAN HEALTH CARE

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2006 | UNIVERSITY PLACE CONFERENCE CENTER

850 W. MICHIGAN STREET INDIANAPOLIS, IN (317) 274-3280 FAX (317) 274-3878

THE JOSEPH TAYLOR SYMPOSIUM: Dr. Joseph T. Taylor served as a Professor of Sociology from 1965 to 1983 and as the first Dean of the School of Liberal Arts at IUPUI from 1967–1978. The entire community was saddened by his death in September of 2000. Dr. Taylor is remembered for his commitment to dialogue and diversity. The Joseph Taylor Symposium honors Dr. Taylor for his many contributions to the university and the community by hosting informed discussion on issues of concern in urban America. The Seventeenth Annual Taylor Symposium is offered in celebration of all Dr. Taylor stood for during his lifetime and will stand as a lasting legacy to his vision and life work.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION: Attendance at the Joseph Taylor Symposium is free and open to the general public. All registrants are invited to the luncheon for which there is a modest charge. Seating for the lunch is limited to 260. Please see the registration form for more information.

Patrons of the Joseph Taylor Symposium may reserve a table of ten at the luncheon; patron support will be recognized at the Symposium. Sponsors may reserve one luncheon place and will be recognized at the Symposium. Individual tickets are also available.

All seating is reserved with payment. Refunds for non-attendees are not available. Pre-paid reservations will be seated first. If you decide to stay for lunch but do not have a reservation, please plan to check at the registration desk for availability. Seating availability for walk-ins is limited. To ensure your registration at the Joseph Taylor Symposium, you should register no later than February 10, 2006.

The Joseph Taylor Symposium is held at the University Place Conference Center on the IUPUI Campus, 850 W. Michigan, Indianapolis, Indiana. Parking is available beneath the Conference Center in the garage or in the North Street Garage east of the Conference Center ($6.00 per car). For information please contact Heather Fuller, 317-274-3280/hfuller@iupui.edu.
