

Robert Noyce Teacher Scholarship Program

Application for Robert Noyce Summer Internship Program

IUPUI Students Eligible for the Noyce STEM Internship will:

- Have completed no more than 4 semesters as an undergraduate at time of application.
- Be a declared STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering or Math) major.
- Have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher.
- Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.

Instructions: Please type or neatly print.

Deadline for receipt of all applications and supporting materials: March 1, 2011.

Name: _____ Date: _____
Last First Middle Initial

Local address: _____

Local telephone: _____ E-mail: _____

Permanent address: _____

Student ID #: _____ Birth Date: _____

Place of birth: _____
City State/Province Country

S.S.N. _____ (optional)

National Science Foundation requirements stipulate that Robert Noyce STEM Intern recipients either be U.S. citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. Please indicate your status:

U.S. citizen [ ] Permanent U.S. resident [ ]

Gender: Female [ ] Male [ ]

Check any that apply: American Indian [ ] Hispanic [ ] African-American [ ]

Other Minority: _____

Number of credits completed at end of spring 2011 semester: _____

Major or program name(s): _____

Current IUPUI GPA: _____

(Please attach a copy of your grade report or unofficial transcript)

Academic distinctions or honors earned: _____

Name, City, State of High School you attended: _____

Teaching and Research experience (if applicable): _____

Interest Statement: Noyce Internship offers eight-week paid summer work in science learning settings where the interns can examine or explore their interest in and disposition for teaching science in secondary education level.

On a separate page, write a 300 word essay describing: 1) your experiences while working with adolescent as a coach, tutor, mentor, camp counselor, youth group leader, or co-worker, 2) your interest in teaching the science or math subjects, and 3) how participating in the Noyce Summer Internship program would benefit your educational goals or future career choices.

References: Please arrange for two supporting letters on your behalf to arrive at the UCASE office no later than the March 1, 2011 deadline. These letters may come from university faculty, work supervisors, or K-12 educators with whom you have studied. Please provide to each reference one copy of the Reference Form (see Noyce “Forms” page).

Referee #1: _____
(Name) (Department or affiliation)

Referee #2: _____
(Name) (Department or affiliation)

By my signature below, I hereby submit my application to the Robert Noyce Summer STEM Internship program.

_____
(Signature) (Date)

Checklist of Application Materials:

- _____ Signed application form
- _____ Grade report or unofficial transcript
- _____ 300 word essay of interest in Noyce Internship program
- _____ Two signed letters of references

Please submit all application materials by March 1, 2011, to:
UCASE - IU School of Education, ES 1115
902 West New York Street,
Indianapolis, IN 46202-5155

The reviewing process of applications will begin immediately and you will be notified of your status by early April 2011.

Noyce Scholarships provided by funding from the National Science Foundation
Award Abstract #0733788
Advance Urban Learning: Teach
Science