Passport Financial Assistance Agreement
Indiana University Purdue University - Indianapolis
Ivy Tech Community College - Central Indiana

Passport is a coordinated program between Ivy Tech Community College-Central Indiana and Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) that allows students to be enrolled simultaneously at each institution. Students may be eligible to receive financial aid assistance when participating in the Passport program if they meet the following criteria:

- Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) with the HOME institution and provide all requested documentation to the Financial Aid Office at the HOME institution;
- Complete a Passport Financial Assistance Agreement for each semester in which you are requesting financial aid by the deadline listed below; and
- Enroll in a minimum of 3 credit hours at each the HOME and HOST institution (minimum of 6 total credit hours).

Your financial aid will be determined and awarded by the institution awarding your degree. You may only receive financial aid for courses which transfer to your certificate / degree program at the HOME school.

Instructions:

☐ Step 1: Complete and sign Section 1 - Student Information

☐ Step 2: Meet with Academic Advisor from your HOME institution to review enrollment and provide signature in Section 2. Courses must count toward your certificate/degree program and be transferable to the HOME institution.

☐ Step 3: Submit form to the Financial Aid Office at the HOST institution for review and signature in Section 3.

☐ Step 4: Submit form to the Financial Aid Office at the HOME institution for final processing.

Which school is my HOME / HOST institution?
HOME institution = the school where you are enrolled in a degree-seeking program and where you will earn your degree. The HOME institution will also process and disburse your financial aid.
HOST institution = the school you are visiting to complete part of your degree program requirements.

Can the Passport Financial Assistance Agreement be used at another campus?
The Passport Financial Assistance Agreement can only be used between IUPUI and Ivy Tech Community College - Central Indiana. All courses (including online and distance learning) must be taken through IUPUI or Ivy Tech - Central Indiana campuses. Courses taken at other campuses may not be used to determine your financial aid eligibility.

How will my bill be paid at the HOST institution?
The HOME institution Financial Aid Office will process and disburse all of your financial aid. You must make arrangements with your HOST institution for tuition, fees and books. The HOME institution will not directly pay the HOST institution (except for SSACI awards which will be paid directly between the schools).
- You may use CVO benefits (if you qualify) to pay for tuition and allowable fees at the HOST institution. In order to use CVO funds, you must complete a FAFSA and CVO form for each the HOME and HOST institutions, and you must meet Satisfactory Academic Progress at each institution.

For more information on how to become a Passport student, contact the Passport Advisor at 917-5720 or 278-4545 or visit the Passport Advisor at either the IUPUI or Ivy Tech North Meridian campus.

DEADLINES: Fall - September 1; Spring - January 15; Summer - June 1. Students must be enrolled in all classes and submit the signed and completed agreement by the deadline in order to receive aid for the semester requested.
