

Beavers, Guns & Whiskey: Cultural & Physical Heritage of North Central Indiana

BACK TO BASICS Summer Institute

FOR: Grades 3-12 Educators

If interested K-2 teacher, contact GENI Office

WHEN: June 27-30, 2011

WHERE: Goshen, Indiana

REGISTRATION FEE: $25 GENI Members/$50 non-members

Two graduate credits will be offered through IUSB. For those needing Professional Growth Points, up to 30 points can be provided.

Participants must provide own transportation to and from the workshop site.

Some Highlights -

- Environmental Studies (Landuse Progression, Streambank Studies, etc.)
- Field Work with Flora and Fauna, including Trapper Reenactment
- Connecting Past, Present, and Future Geographical Perspectives
- Orienteering, Topo Maps, GPS
- Night Hike and Celestial Navigation
- Visit to Merry Lea Nature Center

Requirements:

- Attendance for all 4 days of the Institute
- Participation in all activities, including field work, canoeing and camping (1 night)
- All participants will submit a new resource to GENI from approved list (ie- video, book review, powerpoint, podcast, lesson plan, etc.)
- Additional requirements for graduate credit option

Registration Fee includes:

- Overnight accommodations
(tentatively: cots inside 2 nights and tents outside 1 night)
- All meals & snacks from breakfast on Monday through lunch on Thursday
- All equipment and transportation needs once on site (bring your own sleeping bag and pillow)
- Resource materials to take back to your classroom

SPONSORED BY THE GEOGRAPHY
EDUCATORS' NETWORK OF INDIANA
Visit www.iupui.edu/~geni for a registration form or contact us at 317-274-8879 / geni@iupui.edu

