IUPUI Homecoming 2013

Banner Decorating Contest

1. Students may pick up banners from The Office of Student Involvement (CE 370) starting November 26, 2012.
2. Banners must be turned in for display to The Office of Student Involvement by Monday, January 21st at 4:00pm.
3. Banners must be used in its original form.
4. Items attached to banner cannot be edible.
5. Theme of banner must be appropriate (no vulgarity or obscenity).
6. The Homecoming Committee reserves the right to not display a banner due to content.
7. Banners DO need to be limited to the Homecoming theme (Blast from the Past).
8. Banners will be displayed in the IUPUI Campus Center.
9. There will be a first, second and third place winners selected in each of three categories:
   a. Individual Student
   b. Student Organization
   c. University Department/Academic Unit
10. Winners will be announced Saturday, February 9th, 2013 during JagGating.
11. All banners will become the property of Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis and may be displayed at other homecoming events.
12. A limited number of banners and supplies will be provided by the Homecoming Committee.

*ALL banners need to be returned no later than Monday, January 21st, 2013 at 4:00pm, whether they are decorated or not.

13. First place winners will receive a prize along with a 1st place certificate. 2nd and 3rd place will also receive a certificate.
   - Individual Student Prize- JagSwag Prize Pack
   - Student Organization Prize- $150 of programming money (Donated by the Office of Student Involvement)
   - University Department/Academic Unit Prize- Breakfast for your department/unit

Name of Individual/Organization/Department/Unit __________________________________________________________

Representative __________________________________________________________

Phone number _____________________________       Email _____________________________

By signing below I confirm that I have carefully read the information in this packet as well as the instructions provided and have shared them with my organization/department. I understand that if my organization/department does not abide by the rules and guidelines for Homecoming Week activities, we will be disqualified from the banner decoration competition. I understand that in all cases the judges’ decisions are final. The Homecoming Committee reserves the right to make fair and necessary amendments to the information in this packet at any time.

_________________________________________       _____________________________

Signature of Representative       Date