

The Joel Priddy Evening of the Arts Endowment

The Joel Priddy Evening of the Arts Endowment was established by friends and family of Joel Priddy to support the efforts of the annual Evening of the Arts production. Joel was an integral part of the show working behind the scenes and also serving as the show's host. During his second year of medical school, Joel was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. Although Joel's life was cut short on September 6, 2000, his wit, humor, carefree style, and intense love of life live on. It was the Priddy family's wish that the Joel Priddy Evening of the Arts Endowment be a lasting tribute to Joel and his dedication to art and medicine. The Joel Priddy Evening of the Arts Endowment will allow Evening of the Arts to enrich the lives of many in the Indianapolis community for many years to come.
