Dear Leader,

On behalf of the Indiana Latina/o Leadership Conference (ILLC) planning committee we would like to extend an opportunity for you to participate in an existing effort focusing on student leadership development.

“Sleeping Giant? From Invisible to Invincible” 10th Annual Indiana Latina/o Leadership Conference

Today, many Latina/o students strive to enrich their lives and those of future generations. Assuring the continuation of this human spirit involves cultivating the Latina/o student body IN ORDER to become tomorrow’s leaders.

This year a group of concerned students from Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI), Ivy Tech Community College (Indianapolis), and Indiana University-Bloomington, gathered to celebrate the uniqueness of Latina/o students, by facilitating a forum through this conference where students can exchange their ideas, values, and beliefs in order to promote scholarship, leadership, cultural awareness and community.

Enclosed with this letter you will find a CALL FOR WORKSHOPS AND PAPERS Form. The ILLC planning committee welcomes proposals for workshops to be held at the Indiana Latina/o Leadership Conference on February 28, 2009. Deadline for submission is January 24, 2009.

We have also enclosed a copy of the Conference Registration Form in which we encourage everyone who is interested in attending the conference to register by February 1, 2009 to assure registration. Online registration is also available at www.iupui.edu/~latinosa/illc/registration.html. If you have any further question please feel free to contact us by email at iulec@indiana.edu or call (812) 855-0174.

This is the only student-planned conference of its kind and we invite you to be a part of it. We are excited about this year’s conference and in celebration of it’s 10th Anniversary we hope to make this the largest conference yet in the heart of the state in Indianapolis. We look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely,

The Indiana Latina/o Leadership Conference Planning Committee

CALL FOR WORKSHOPS AND PAPERS

Deadline for Submission is January 24, 2009

Guidelines for Proposals

The Indiana Latina/o Leadership Conference Planning Committee invite proposals for workshops to be held at the Annual Indiana Latina/o Leadership Conference. The conference will be held Saturday, February 28th 2009 at Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis' Campus Center. For more details on the conference see:

www.iupui.edu/~latinoso/illc.

The mission of the Indiana Latina/o Leadership Conference is to celebrate the uniqueness of Latina/o students in a forum by and for students. This forum seeks to cultivate the exchange of ideas, values, and beliefs in order to promote scholarship, leadership development, and empowerment of Indiana's college and high school Latinas/os.

Please include the following information in your proposal: title of session, contact person and their email, short description and name of presenter(s). Several categories which we offer to help stimulate your thoughts for a focus to your workshop or session include leadership, community, educational and cultural issues, career development, technology, and current issues. These are guides and not parameters.

WORKSHOPS

- Emphasis is on demonstration, audience participation as opposed to lecture and discussion.
- The conference theme should be included in your proposal.
- Engaging activities and interactive group learning opportunities are desired by the participants.
- Allow time for questions and comments from the audience.

PAPERS

- Submit proposals to present class term papers or research papers
- The paper should include the following: introduction; purpose(s) or objective(s); citations/references/data sources and conclusion.
- Paper presentations can consist of more than one student sharing their work. (Multiple papers may be presented).

Please limit your workshop or session to 1 hour. Each proposal postmarked no later than January 24, 2009 are guaranteed for the review process. Each submission will be emailed a response no later than February 9, 2009. Please submit all completed proposals to:
