<tr>
<td>Article III, Section D, 2: Election Results</td>
<td>The Bylaws Committee has been working closely with the Membership Committee to revise this article in the event of a tie. The Membership Committee has suggested that a tie be resolved through a &quot;random selection.&quot; The Bylaws Committee is not comfortable with the informality of a random selection tool. Teresa McCurry recently provided information from Roberts Rules that states in the event of a tie, &quot;you repeat the balloting until one candidate receives a majority.&quot; Based upon this information, the Bylaws Committee will present the revised article at the September 2011 Staff Council Meeting.</td>

At the May Staff Council meeting, it was suggested that the Council consider meeting year-round. Karen Lee created a "Survey Monkey" to poll staff council members. The results of the survey were as follows: Yes: 53.4%, No: 48.3%. We will address this article again in September.
